

Nebraska Nurses Association announces:

$500 Scholarships

Sponsored by the Arthur L. Davis Publishing Agency

Application for Scholarship

Through the generosity of the Arthur L. Davis Publishing Agency, the Nebraska Nurses Association will grant two (2) $500 scholarships to Nebraska student nurse pre-licensure applicants that meet the following criteria.

1. A resident of Nebraska
2. Enrollment in an accredited nursing program in Nebraska (the nursing program must be accredited).
3. 3.0 GPA (official transcripts required; should be emailed/mailed directly from the college/university)
4. Completion of at least 12 credits of core nursing science courses (listed as nursing courses on course catalogue or transcript) required by the degree granting institution.
5. 2 letters of recommendation (at least 1 from a faculty member)
6. An essay of not more than 500 words relating to:
 - a. Future professional nursing goals, and
 - b. How membership in the Nebraska Nurses Association will facilitate achievement of your professional goals and promotes the profession of nursing?

Application cover sheet should include:

Date

Name of Applicant

Address

Phone

E-mail (if available)

Nursing Program: name, date of entry, date of anticipated completion

Submit your application: By E-mail: npsc@nebraskanurses.org By Mail: NNA Scholarship Committee c/o Midwest Multistate Division 3340 American Ave., Suite F Jefferson City, MO 65109 All application materials must be received by August 26th, 2022. Scholarship recipients will be recognized at the Nebraska Nurses Annual Award Banquet in October. Scholarship applicants and recipients are encouraged to attend. Banquet fee will be complimentary for recipient and 1 guest.